Re: USA v. Mustafa Goklu
19-CR-386

Your Honor:

I represent Mustafa Goklu in the above-referenced matter. I am writing to inform the Court that I will not be available to try Mr. Goklu's case on January 18, 2022. As discussed at our recent status conference, I am scheduled to begin trial before Judge Seybert in Central Islip on a 2018 indictment charging Racketeering, Murder and related crimes, with an incarcerated defendant, on February 14, 2022. At the status conference I indicated that there was a possibility of a guilty plea on the case before Judge Seybert, but it appears that there will not be a plea and the case will proceed to trial.

I am available to discuss rescheduling Mr. Goklu's trial, by phone, videoconference, or in person, as convenient to the Court.

Very truly yours,

/s/
Murray Singer
